"THE ACT OF BETRAYAL"

It does not seem to me that I have ever betrayed anyone. It is, usually, the simple task. It requires not so much any real ability as it does a capacity for forgetting one's self, forgetting others and forgetting God. Jesus found it easy to do. He was a Jew. He had once decided to do so. Just a trip to the Jordan by night and a kiss were all that was required.

Jesus' betrayal lives in infamy, but the truth of the matter is that he was a Jew. He had once decided to do so. Just a trip to the Jordan by night and a kiss were all that was required.

Authorities Say Army to Damp M14

WASHINGTON, April 10—The army may halt production of the M14 rifle as a standard issue weapon for little more than three years, authorities said today.

The reason is a plan to switch to a much lighter rifle, the M16, which is being developed for use by air assault divisions and guerrilla units.

A final decision is expected within a month on whether to continue M14 production, reduce it to a very slow pace, or halt it completely.

The army's total M14 program, including rifles produced and stored, now stands at 1.2 million. Research and development of the rifle cost $2.2 million and the amount invested in production through the year ending June 30 is $18.3 million.

The M14 was brought into the army in January, after a testing program had shown it as far back as the M1 Garand rifle of World War II, which became the standard infantry weapon in 1936, and for several other shoulder weapons.

A decision against the M14 would mean an end to production before the weapon was distributed throughout the divisions in Europe. There are some M14s in the Pacific army corps and in Pacific army forces in combat units use it.

But the army's usual use of the M14 could see the Pacific corps returning to the M1 Garand in about a pound heavier as the M14.

The M14 with a fully loaded magazine weighs 6.92 pounds, much more than half the weight of a fully loaded M14. It is a plastic stock, can be fired manually or semi-automatically, has a range of more than 1,000 yards and is apparently highly regarded as a weapon for paratroopers and special forces.

The air force originally was interested in the M14 as a survival weapon for downed strategic bomber crews. The army at one time rejected it.

At present the unit cost of an M14 is higher than that of the M1 Garand, but that could change with mass production, according to authorities.

W. Estes, Summit, Ark.; Marvin Estes, Gaston, Tex.; Alva Estes, Watson, Ark.; and Mrs. Mary Gibson, Collinsville, Mo.; 10 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Hearing for Buhl School Budget Set

BUHL, April 10—The school board hearing for 1953-54 for Buhl class A school district No. 419 is set for 8 p.m. May 13 at the high school when the board of trustees met Monday night.

A special meeting of the trustees was called for April 28 for final consideration and approval of the budget prior to submission for a public hearing.

The date for the annual trustee election was set for Tuesday, May 14. At that time two trustees will be elected each for a three-year term. Trustees whose terms expire are Fred Bralstorf, trustee in district two, and Gene Thomas, trustee in district one. Both have indicated they will seek reelection to the board.

Residents of trustee district two residing in Gooding county will vote at the Snake River trout farm. Residents of Twin Falls county trustee districts one and two will vote at the Buhl high school. Polls will be open from 5 p.m. through 8 p.m.

It was noted all but three out of 65 teachers in the Buhl public school system have signed their contracts to teach for the 1953-54 school year. The three senior high school teachers who have submitted their resignations are Ormond Thomas, Mrs. Robert Weaver, Jr., and Mrs. Donald Dietz.

Pred Walmsley, vocational agriculture instructor of the Buhl high school, appeared before the trustees to request a two-week leave of absence to attend a four-week course for vocational agriculture instructors to be held at the University of Idaho in July.

Since Walmsley is employed as vocational agriculture instructor on a 12-month basis, giving him no opportunity to attend summer school, the board authorized the two-week leave with pay and granted him $400 which will serve as part payment of the registration fee for the course.

Rex Engelking, superintendent, reported $803.50 was received from the insurance company for payment of repairs to roof damages caused by winds to the high school building. The official note of the board.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—The Bank of Idaho says bids for construction of two new branch offices in north Idaho will be opened April 30 in Sandpoint. Joseph Blalock, president, said plans call for construction of a 6,000 square foot structure at Bonanza Ferry and a 3,200 square foot building at Post Falls. Work on the buildings is expected to begin in May, he said.

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—A suit has been filed in federal court here against the First National Bank of Bonanza Ferry, Inc. and the Bank of Idaho. The suit was brought Tuesday by Union Contractors, Ltd., British Columbia, which is a judgment creditor of the bank for alleged wrongs in checking account by the Bonanza Ferry bank. The Bank of Idaho is listed as present owner. The suit contends that J. H. McNally, bank president, deducted from the firm's account sums of money to cover payments that were not obligations of the plaintiff. The firm also alleges that deposits made in 1958 and 1959 were not credited to its account. The suit asks exemplary damages in the sum of $100,000 against McNally and the First National Bank of Bonanza Ferry.

ST. MARIES, April 10 (UP)—A 29-year-old man is scheduled to go on trial June 10 for the bludge murder of a rancher's wife. The trial date was set Tuesday after Murray Gribble pleaded innocent to a charge of first degree murder in district court here. Gribble is accused of the suffocation death of Mrs. Harry Verlan, 47, last November. Her 50-year-old husband also was slain. Thomas Morris, Bonanza county prosecutor, said Gribble told him after his arrest that he got in an argument with Verlan at the latter's home about 12 miles from St. Maries. He said Gribble said that he hit Verlan, and that "when the latter appeared to be dead, he then killed Mrs. Verlan. Morris said Gribble told him he and the couple's bodies on a bed and set fire to the house. Afterwards, he said, he drove home and had his wife report the fire.

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—Irrigation water storage in 37 per cent over that at the corresponding time last year. Regional director Harold West said today. He said the 41 reservoirs held about eight million acre feet of usable storage at the end of March. Their capacity is about 10 million. "Because of the below-normal streamflow anticipated for the remainder of the season, it is expected that the draft on reservoir storage this season will be unusually heavy."

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—The Idaho wheat commission Tuesday authorized its chairman and administrator to proceed with patent applications on new wheat flours developed by the Stanford Research Institute while under contract to the commission. Administrator Harold West said he has received hundreds of inquiries relative to the new wheat chips, roasted wheat, total protein bread and a quick cooking whole wheat "which were introduced by the commission at a recent meeting in New York City last fall. In other action Tuesday, the commission agreed to contact other Idaho commodity commissions to discuss the possibility of establishing a joint office to provide counsel in freight rate cases.

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—An estimated 99 per cent of the sugar beet acreage planned in southwestern Idaho has been planted. The U. S. department of agriculture and the weather bureau said today in their first weekly summary of the 1963 season. "Planting of late season potatoes has also begun and onion planting is well along," the report said.

MCCALL, April 10 (UP)—Two to five inches of new snow was reported today at the Brundage mountain ski resort near McCall. Snow depth was rated as excellent. Snow depths range from 36 to 110 inches.

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—Delegates to the bureau of public roads' financial management conference were told Tuesday that compact cars, while they use less gasoline, are paying their share of the interstate highway program. J. C. Allen, Washington, D. C., director for advertising for the bureau, said the gasoline consumption is "holding up" because compact cars are traveling more. "This is important," he said, "because about 81 per cent of the interstate program is financed by a four cent a gallon gasoline tax."

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—Motorists driving Idaho highways were urged Tuesday to be on the watch for infant wildlife—birds and animals. The Idaho fish and game department said today that soon will be hatching and by late May and early June whitetail and mule deer fawns will begin arriving. Tender green sprouting along roads, and the appearance of the young deer, which have no permanent motorists to be alert, adding, "cars can—and should—readily take a heavy toll of wildlife creatures on the move."

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—Below normal precipitation during March further reduced the outlook for water runoff in streams of southern Idaho this year. The U. S. weather bureau reported today, "A dry start to the last five days of March," the bureau report said, "brought moderate to heavy precipitation throughout the mountain areas of the Snake. However, this month-end storm failed to balance the scales and total March precipitation was well below normal."

Ralph Foraker, Jerome Methodist church; Third word, "Behold thy Son—Behold thy Mother," the Rev. Donald Ross, Jerome Christian church; Fourth word, "My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" the Rev. Ralph Foraker, Jerome Methodist church; Fifth word, "I thirst," the Rev. George Barnhart, Jerome Presbyterian church; Sixth word, "Behold thy Son—Behold thy Mother," the Rev. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Austin O. Ruger, minister of the Methodist church. There will be special music by a hymn or during the interlude. Participants are asked to enter during the singing of the hymn.

The Rev. Jack A. Jennings, minister of the Wendell Presbyterian church, arranged for guest preachers. An unusual feature of the service again this year is the use of a large group of choir members. The choir, made of coral people, is large enough to have been the instrument of execution upon Jesus died.

Complaint in Gem Court Asks for Reapportionment

BOISE, April 10 (UP)—A supplemental complaint is on file in U. S. district court here asking again that the court force reapportionment of the Idaho legislature. The complaint contends that the 1963 legislature failed to reapportion itself properly on a basis of population. It requests the original request that the court order state officials not to hold another election until such reapportionment is accomplished.

The supplemental complaint was filed by State Rep. Herman McDewitt, D-Bannock, a Pocatello attorney, behalf of Walter R. Hearne, Pocatello, and Stanley E. Whitman, Boise, who brought the original suit last year.

To date, only a pre-trial conference has been completed in the case. April 10 has been set as the deadline for the filing of a brief to support the original complaint.

A reapportionment measure passed by the 1963 legislature increased membership of the house from 53 to 79 but made no change in the state, which has one member for each of the 44 counties.

The supplemental complaint charges that the measure does not provide equal representation for all residents of the state and "constitutes an arbitrary and capricious reapportionment of the representatives of the house without any logical or reasonable formula whatever."

The complaint contends that under the measure there are "extreme disparities in representation where one representative is elected by 14,349 people in Minidoka county and one is elected by 815 people in Clark and Camas counties, a difference of one to 15.7 in voting power."

The complaint further states that the reapportionment statutes

Kennedy Is Accused of GOP Policies

WASHINGTON, April 10 (UP)—Leon Keyserling, top White House economic adviser during the Truman administration, criticized President Kennedy's tax proposals last night as an unethical attempt to follow Republican economic policies to win the 1964 elections.

Keyserling said he had no quarrel with Kennedy but had advised his advisers for favoring an "undesirable economic policy" for strategic political reasons.

"President Kennedy has understanding, courage, desire—all except one thing," Keyserling said. "He lacks the will to stand up for the National Democratic Club. A man as busy as he is... has lacked the kind of advice he needs on the economic and political front. There is a lack of ethical drive, of really caring, among his advisers."

Keyserling, president of the Conference on Economic Progress, appeared on a panel discussion of the federal reserve system at the Buhl First Methodist church. He was accompanied by Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., and Treasury Undersecretary Henry H. Fowler.

Keyserling, who was chairman of the council of economic advisers for President Harry S. Truman, said he had seen a new deal economic legislation for the "Roosevelt administration" questioned the placing of Republican in high positions in the Kennedy administration.

He said "something is wrong" when the current administration respects the advice of a Republican official who favors a "light money policy."

Keyserling said later he was referring to William McChesney Martin, Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, a Republican, and a holdover from the Eisenhower administration.

Keyserling suggested the Kennedy administration was shaped by political thinking to make it appear close to the economic views of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The lawyer-economist said the administration's proposed tax cuts were mostly benefits to high-income businessmen. Tax cuts should be directed to low-income group consumers to create more demand, he said.

Laboratory Is Approved At Hagerman

HAGERMAN, April 10.—Permit was given to the high school science department to set up a testing laboratory in a small vacant room in the high school gymnasium when school trustees met Monday evening.

Plans were made for the irrigation, fertilization and seeding of the football field.

Book fees have been set for the next year. Because of the increase in revenue and the increase in book costs, there will be a raise in the rental charge.

For the high school, the increase will be from $3 to $5 per year, and the former $2 loss and damage fee will be raised to $4. This fee will be refundable at the end of the current school year if the books are not lost or damaged.

Fees for the seventh and eighth grade will be left at $3 per year.

with the damage fee of $1 which also is refundable. The first through the sixth grade book rental is $3 and, damage fee of 50 cents.

Each student will be pre-registered in the high school building in the next week so he will know before school is out this spring what expenses to plan for next fall.

Registration fees will be collected either at the beginning of the year in one lump sum, or divided into two equal payments, one at the beginning of each semester.

The trustee election will be held May 6. As there is a representative in Twin Falls county, a polling place must be held in that county. This will be at Burger's lodge, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. May 6. The other trustee voting pool will be held in the high school gymnasium, from 1:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

These trustees will be elected for one year, which is served by Frank Henkle, and some two, now served by Bob Adolf. Both will be three year terms.

Class day for the eighth grade was set at 2 p.m. May 16. Plans for a senior sneak were approved, as presented by Keith Crist and Bill Snapp.

Spring vacation will be Good Friday through Monday.

The pre-school party will be held May 3. Children who will be 6 years old by Oct. 15 are invited to the elementary first grade room at 2 p.m. Their mothers will meet at 2:10 p.m. for the home economics rooms where Supt. George Carnie will talk.

Seniors requesting permission to attend the campus day at HCC, Postville, April 26, may attend.

The district enrollment increased from 290 in January to 319, Carnie reported.

Four stoves, a washer, a dryer and a 12-cubic foot refrigerator have been traded for, through the Westinghouse school plan, with Greenawald's in Gooding at a cost of $300 to the school. In this replacement basis set up, new appliances will be replaced every two years, free of charge.

Low bids for typewriters for the commercial department were received from Spencer's office supply, Twin Falls, and will be purchased there.

Ransom Talks At Ketchum C. of C. Meet

Heyburn Is Searching For Pioneers

HEYBURN, April 10.—The village of Heyburn is in search of early day settlers of the Heyburn project, announces Mrs. Vian Scoville, committee chairman for the Arbor day and Centennial celebration.

Tentative plans made during a meeting Monday evening at the village hall will give Heyburn a full day of celebration, including honoring the early settlers of this project.

All persons qualifying for this title are asked to please contact Mrs. Everett Savage, Heyburn, or telephone 678-8483 with data on when they came, their age etc.

It was decided by the recreation committee to combine a town day of celebration with the Centennial celebration with the Christiansen, Ralph McCombs, fourth annual Arbor day celebration April 26. Activities will follow the schedule of former years, with a few changes and several improvements made.

The new Heyburn park, Oak Lawn, has been the center of attention since the Arbor day celebration first started in Heyburn four years ago. It has been an annual affair for the grade students of the school to assist in the planting of trees in the park.

Mrs. Scoville said, "it was the intention of the park committee to try to teach the children the importance of proper care and treatment for trees. We felt if the children helped to plant the trees, they would also help preserve them."

Persons named to head the celebration committees include Mrs. Lazzelle Greenhalgh, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Bill Weiborn, Walter Jensen, Virgil Matson, J. Bradley Anderson, Mrs. Dean Hammond, Mrs. Richard Sorenson, Mrs. Leo Handy, Lund and Mrs. Christian, Ralph McCombs, John Blom, Mrs. Harlow Cheney and Mrs. Savage.

Mrs. Greenhalgh, village board member over recreation, announced there will be three improvements to the park this year in time for the celebration. These include a slipper slide, completion of the restroom and installation of glider swings.

The restroom and the slide are results from donations and fund raising projects. The glider swings were donated by the late W. P. Boyd, former village marshal who donated four-fifths of his monthly wages towards a fund for future playground equipment for the children. He died in 1955.

Money Problems Continue To Plague Idaho's Schools

By United Press International
Financial problems continued to plague Idaho school districts today as Meridian officials contemplated a threat to quit by high school teachers and the Pocatello school sought more money through a special election.

Meridian School Board Chairman—Merlin C. Gersama said yesterday the Meridian system may be forced to replace its high school teachers if they refuse to sign new contracts.

Monday night spokesmen for all 26 members of the Meridian high school faculty told the board they will not accept contracts under the new 1963-64 salary schedule. The teachers' salaries are pegged 100 low and represent "very little increase" under the school board's plan.

Gersama pointed out the board has provided $33,000 in salary dials intend to ask for a special property tax assessment to make up an expected $123,000 deficit in the budget for next term, they announced yesterday.

Supt. Dorsey Riggs said the district is going to have to raise more money if it is to open the schools and staff them this fall. School officials will meet with county officers to discuss the calling of a special election to levy an additional five mills for educational purposes. It is estimated the levy would raise $135,000.

It should be more.

However, Gersama said, "we leave the Meridian district strictly in a bind." The school board has no choice but to issue the contracts and let the teachers sign or decline, he said.

"If they don't accept the contracts," Gersama said, "we just have to declare the contract vacant and then try to hire someone for the money we have. I don't like it but that's what we have to do."

Draftee Rate Of Illiteracy High in '62

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Secretary of Defense, W. Willard Wirtz said yesterday that 28 per cent of the youths called for the draft last year were rejected because of illiteracy—and 13 per cent of the rejects were high school graduates.

Wirtz, a former Illinois high school teacher, said the "startling" illiteracy rate demonstrated that "education has a responsibility to keep youngsters in school until they can learn to do something."

He spoke at the closing session of the two-day annual conference of the National Committee for support of the public schools, composed of 500 private citizens seeking more money for public schools.

"I hate to use statistics when talking about human beings," the secretary said. "I wish we could forget about such terms as five or six per cent national unemployment rate. The figures do not reflect the true problem."

Wirtz said the main trouble is in the teen-age bracket. He said the unemployment rate for white teenagers in the 14 to 19 age bracket jumped from six per cent in 1952 to 12 per cent in 1962. The corresponding figure for non-white teenagers soared from six per cent to 21 per cent.
